

Christina Cabral named one of Five Outstanding Houstonians for 2007 by the Houston Junior Chamber and Junior Chamber Foundation

Friday, August 03, 2007

Lyceum Director, Christina Cabral, was named with this honor in a ceremony on July 24, 2007. Christina is the Director of Boards and Commissions for the City of Houston. The Junior Chamber recognized that “Christina’s dedication and sense of civic duty were ingrained in her by her parents from a very young age. After graduating from the University of Texas, she began a career in politics at the municipal, state and federal levels. While in Washington, DC, she was awarded the Secretary of Defense Medal for Meritorious Civilian Service. Since moving to Houston seven years ago, Christina has dedicated herself to this community through her work with the City and with organizations like Girls, Inc., and the Texas Lyceum.” Other distinguished Houstonians have been given this honor including President George H.W. Bush, Howard Hughes, Dr. Denton Cooley, and Lt. Governor Bill Hobby among others.
