

Sullivan Group Collects Trio of Ises Event Planning Awards

Cameron and Aggreko events earn Sullivan Group kudos from International Special Events Society.

Sullivan Group, a nationally known special-events producer, received three major awards at the ISES (International Special Events Society) Crystal Icon Awards ceremony on July 27, 2008, held at the Omni Houston Hotel.

Sullivan Group garnered the prestigious "Best Corporate Event" Award for "Cameron's Fantastic 5," a super-hero themed Offshore Technology Conference gathering. The company also received honors for its work with Aggreko North America, earning awards for "Best Entertainment Production" and "Best Event Design/Décor/Floral."

"Being recognized by your peers is especially satisfying," says Sullivan Group's CEO, Clare Sullivan Jackson. "These awards are a tribute to our entire team and a clear sign of Sullivan Group's growing expertise in the production of marketing-oriented corporate events."

Sullivan Group was founded in 1989 by Clare Sullivan Jackson. Today the company specializes in corporate-meeting and event production, strategic-marketing events, and comprehensive destination-management services. For more information, visit www.sullivan-group.com.
