

News Release

JOHN R. BOETTIGER, JR. SWORN IN AS 28TH PRESIDENT OF TEXAS LYCEUM

John R. Boettiger, Jr., of Houston, a principal with Deloitte Financial Advisory Services LLP, has been elected the 28th president of The Texas Lyceum, a statewide leadership organization. Boettiger, third from left, was sworn in by Texas Supreme Justice Don Willett at a ceremony in the Texas State Capitol. Among those in attendance were Justice Willett; Jordan Cowman, Former Chairman of The Texas Lyceum and Partner, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld; Boettiger; Maggie Radford, Chairman of The Texas Lyceum and CFO/COO of Bonanza Oil Company; Dr. Miles McCall, Immediate Past Chairman of The Texas Lyceum and President of Lon Morris College; and Texas Lyceum President Elect Jay Rutherford, Partner, Jackson Walker LLP.

Lyceumites from left to right are:

Don Willett – Texas Supreme Court Justice (Alumnus)

Jordan Cowman –Partner, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld, LLP (Past Chair; Alumnus).

John Boettiger – Managing Director, Deloitte Financial Advisory Services, LLP (President)

Maggie Radford – CFO and COO, Bonanza Oil Company (Chairman)

Miles McCall – President, Lon Morris College (Past Chair)

Jay Rutherford – Partner, Jackson Walker L.L.P. (President Elect)