

We are pleased to welcome as a partner in the Litigation Practice

R. (Ted) Edward Cruz

Mr. Cruz is responsible for helping build and lead the firm's U.S. Supreme Court and national appellate practice. Prior to joining Morgan Lewis, he served as the Solicitor General of Texas, from 2003 until May 2008. The first Hispanic Solicitor General in Texas, Mr. Cruz has authored more than 70 U.S. Supreme Court briefs and presented 31 oral arguments, including eight before the U.S. Supreme Court. He has argued more cases before the U.S. Supreme Court than any other lawyer in Texas. For five consecutive years, he won the Best Brief Award by the National Association of Attorney Generals (NAAG) for U.S. Supreme Court briefs authored in 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, and 2007. As a litigator, his lifetime record in decided cases he has argued is 23 wins and 4 losses.

Mr. Cruz previously served as the Director of the Office of Policy Planning at the Federal Trade Commission, as Associate Deputy Attorney General at the U.S. Department of Justice, as Department of Justice Transition Coordinator on the 2000 Bush Transition Team, and as Domestic Policy Advisor to President George W. Bush on the Bush-Cheney 2000 campaign. He also served as a law clerk to Judge J. Michael Luttig on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and to Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist on the U.S. Supreme Court. He received his J.D., magna cum laude, from Harvard Law School in 1995 and his A.B., cum laude, from Princeton University in 1992. Mr. Cruz is admitted to practice in Texas and the District of Columbia.
